MEET OUR WILD NEIGHBORS

Wildlife habitats and behaviors with Scott Lembitz

Scott Lembitz is a knowledgeable and energetic environmental educator who has been introducing wildlife to Western New Yorkers of all ages for over twenty years. We'll focus on the mammals and birds of our neighborhood, their signs, where they live, habits, and lifecycles.

Sun., May 16,
1 pm
@ the Meadow

Great for all ages!

We'll be walking in the woods, so wear appropriate footwear and clothing

Bug spray advised!

Your wildlife and tree questions answered!

Take cool pictures to share with your friends!
